

Program Outcomes: B.Des. (Fashion Design)

PO1: Design Knowledge – Apply the knowledge of art, culture, design, textile, and management to solve the design problems pertaining to fashion industry.

PO2: Problem Analysis – Identify, research, analyze, and design based on the market demand considering environmental factors.

PO3: Design Development – Developing designs for customized and prêt-à-porter requirements.

PO4: Design Research – Use research methods for problem identification, collecting and interpreting data, and analysis to propose design solutions.

PO5: Modern Tool Usage – Identify, select and apply appropriate techniques, resources and digital tools including prediction and design development with an understanding of the limitations.

PO6: The Designer and Society – Apply reasoning to address health, safety, socio cultural aspects relevant to professional practice and social responsibility.

PO7: Environment and Sustainability – Being sensitive to environment, provide solutions by applying reuse-recycle sustainable concepts.

PO8: Ethics – Apply ethical principles, and commit to professional ethics and responsibility.

PO9: Individual and Teamwork – Function effectively as an individual, as a member or leader in a diverse team, and in multidisciplinary settings.

PO10: Communication – Ability to communicate through technical sheets, reports, portfolios and presentations.

PO11: Project Management and Finance – Create a productive working environment focusing on time constraints, budgeting, and collaborative projects.

PO12: Lifelong learning – Recognize the need for, and have the preparation and ability to engage in independent and lifelong learning in the broadest context of technological change.